though agents have no trace since last May 17.

Patty's Many Faces Beguile Stumped FBI

By ED ROGERS

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The FBI is circulating retouched photos and sketches of Patricia Hearst to show several disguises she might be wearing to escape capture.

Despite widespread publicity and countless leads volunteered by the public, the FBI has not received a single verifiable "sighting" since Miss Hearst was kidnaped a year ago and went into hiding as a gun-carrying convert to the Symbionese Liberation Army (SLA).

At a news conference last May 9, FBI Director Clarence M. Kelley admitted the bureau was "stumped." Apparently it remains so today.

FBI artists used a photo of a smiling Miss Hearst, taken before she became a fugitive, to show how she would look in three different wigs and with rimless spectacles.

The sketches show her in other wigs, sometimes posing as a young man. One unchanging feature is a small mole below Miss Hearst's right cheek, near her chin.

Although she is the subject of one of the biggest FBI searches ever, Miss Hearst has not made the FBI's "Ten Most Wanted List" of fugitives.

A spokesman said the list is intended to get "saturation publicity," which her case already has.

The FBI says its last evidence that Miss Hearst was alive is a tape recording evidently made after a May 17, 1974, shootout in Los Angeles in which six SLA members died.

The deaths were mentioned on the tape by a woman whose voice was identified as Miss Hearst's.

Kelley has said repeatedly that "The FBI is sparing no effort" to find her.

At one time, there were 200 agents working full-time on the case. A spokesman said at least one agent in each of the FBI's 59 field offices is now assigned to the case at all times.

The number of agents abruptly increases in any area where the FBI gets a report of a possible "sighting."

After Miss Hearst was indicted by a federal grand jury June 6 on armed bank robbery charges, the FBI began circulating wanted posters bearing her photo and those of two fugitive SLA accomplices, William and Emily Harris.

Radicalism

Today marks an unhappy anniversary. It was Feb. 4, 1974 when Patricia Hearst was kidnapped.

Since that unforgettable day, the radical Symbionese Liberation Army which abducted her has been mostly eradicated in a blazing inferno following a shoot-out.

But Miss Hearst — mind bent by her abductors — is still missing. Her trail has been followed by hundreds but she is elusive. The real story of Patricia Hearst may never be known.

The radicalism which began on Berkeley campus a decade ago has waned a great deal. The generation of young radicals has now been turned out into the world of the establishment. Those who wanted to have succeeded. Those who did not care are still failures. College campuses are like Sunday school picnics compared to 10 years ago.

But the hard core radicals are even more intent on achieving their goals. And the resident radicals have been joined by leftist groups, aided and abetted by our non-friends abroad. Recent bombings in Washington and Oakland prove that a few can create a great deal of devastation.

The New Left is another breed birthed to sap the life blood from this nation. Its radicals have continually kept the fires of discontent burning in America.

Now the Central Intelligence Agency and the Federal Bureau of Investigation are being investigated in the inquisition syndrome which has overtaken our Congress. In attempting to ferret out these radicals, the surveillance agencies have been charged with invasion of the individual rights of Americans, including some Congressmen who find themselves the subject of dossiers.

If the truth behind Watergate is ever known fully, there is bound to surface information which would blow the mind. For some reason — perhaps national security — all of that truth has not yet been told. But one day the American people will learn that the sixties and the seventies were aborning times for radicalism. And then it may be a little late to overcome.

Frances Knight, career passport chief, testifies repeatedly to the influx of aliens, unfeindly to America, by forged passports. Her testimony before Senate committees has not received much publicity. It would not appeal to either the New Left or the liberals to whom a great deal of news is now directed.

Agents of other countries which are not extending the hand of friendship run rampant in our land. Yet, naive as it is, our Congress believes that this is the proper time to discredit our FBI and CIA just because a few liberals are whipping up a frenzy.

We have faith in this nation and the people who are its citizens. We believe that they have learned more about radicals in the last year than our Congress which has been so busy Watergating and getting re-elected it has accomplished little else.

It is time for Americans to stand up and be counted. It is time to notify our Congress, our Senate and the administration that they are unwilling to let any interests — whether they are inspired in our own country or from abroad — take over this land by force.

Instead of wiping out our FBI, we must improve it and expand it. Instead of burying the CIA, we must assign agents on a one to one basis instead of one to forty.

On the anniversary of Patricia Hearst's abduction we must remember that it will take the combined efforts of every loyal American to support our government so that we may remain free. Next year is our 200th birthday. We have time to save the United States from radical takeover if we begin today.

Patty Sighting Checked by FBI

By a Post-Gazette Staff Writer

SHIPPINGPORT — The FBI was investigating reports of a couple in a post office who matched the description of fugitive newspaper heiress Patty Hearst and William Harris, her reputed traveling companion.

Roadblocks were set up in Beaver County Tuesday afternoon after Shippingport Postmaster William Burris told police the couple matched the pictures on the wanted posters "to a T." Miss Hearst, Harris and his wife, Emily, are wanted on bank robbery and other charges.

Patty In Beaver? FBI Checks Leads

A bag of trash left in Shippingport by a couple who had "facial resemblances" to fugitive heiress Patty Hearst and her companion, William Harris, was being checked today by the FBI laboratory in Washington.

FBI agent Gary Boutwell said a couple resembling Miss Hearst and Harris, a member of the radical Symbionese Liberation Army, were seen Tuesday in the Shippingport Post Office in Beaver County.

Boutwell said the couple left the bag containing chicken bones and other "picnic items" in the post office after the man purchased an 8-cent stamp.

Postmaster William Burris said the couple glanced at a circular showing pictures of Miss Hearst and Harris and the woman was quoted as saying, "Come on, we have to get out of here."

Burris said the couple resembled Miss Hearst and Harris. A police search of the area turned up no trace of the fugitives.

DETAILS:PREDICATION

Investigation of PATRICIA MICHELLE SOLTYSIK is predicated upon information received from [redacted] who indicated on February 13, 1974, that PATRICIA SOLTYSIK was possibly a member of the Symbionese Liberation Army (SLA).

An SLA document captioned "Declaration of Revolutionary War and the Symbionese Program", dated August 21, 1973, states "...Therefore, we of the Symbionese Federation of the SLA...do now by the rights of our children and people and by force of arms and with every drop of our blood, declare revolutionary war against the fascist capitalist class. We support by force of arms the just struggles of all oppressed people for self-determination and independence within the United States and the world. And hereby offer to all liberation movements, revolutionary workers groups, and peoples organizations our total aid and support for the struggle for freedom and justice for all people and races..."

The SLA has claimed credit for the November 6, 1973 assassination of Dr. MARCUS FOSTER, Oakland, California School Superintendent, and the February 4, 1974 kidnaping of PATRICIA CAMPBELL HEARST, daughter of newspaper publisher-owner RANDOLPH A. HEARST, in furtherance of its revolutionary objectives.

[redacted] advised [redacted] PATRICIA MICHELLE SOLTYSIK, who is about 21 years old and who is currently residing in the Berkeley, California area. [redacted] advised that about two years ago, [redacted] legally had her name changed to MIZMOON SOLTYSIK. He does not know where this change was recorded.

[redacted] stated that [redacted] graduated from Dos Pueblos High School in Goleta in approximately 1969 and thereafter attended the University of California at Berkeley for several years. She has resided in the Berkeley area since that time and has been involved in radical politics. He said that in his conversations with her, she has used all of the typical hard-line radical rhetoric. He knows she has been involved in a Women's Liberation organization and has recently become involved in a group whose objectives are communicating with prisoners and assisting released prisoners. He believes this is a State-wide organization; however, she is affiliated with a Berkeley Chapter. Recently, she has been getting everyone she knows to write to prisoners in connection with these objectives. [redacted] went on to say that [redacted] political profile closely resembles the political profile of NANCY LING PERRY. His only knowledge of PERRY's political stance is from what he has read in the newspaper.

He further advised that [redacted] was last known to be residing at 2135-A Parker, Berkeley, California, telephone (415) 841-0682, with another girl, whose identity is unknown. [redacted] recalled this telephone call took place right around the time that the two members of the Symbionese Liberation Army (SLA) were arrested in the Bay area in connection with the FOSTER killing.

[redacted] advised that he feels that [redacted] is definitely involved in some illegal activity and that the police may be looking for her. He also stated that from her political stance, he feels she should be considered logical for membership in the SLA or a suspected associate of SLA members. He advised that he has never heard the SLA mentioned by [redacted], but feels that she would be definitely sympathetic to SLA ideology.

[redacted] was interviewed at her residence, [redacted]. She was advised of the identities of the interviewing Agents and the purpose of the interview, after which she voluntarily furnished the following information:

In September, 1973, she moved [redacted] inasmuch as she had previously lived [redacted] and had previously possessed a California Driver's License, she applied for a reinstatement of her license. At that time she was temporarily renting [redacted]. This was the address she furnished when she applied for the reinstatement at the California Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) office. However, prior to receipt of her license by mail, [redacted] moved to [redacted]. After several weeks she called [redacted] to inquire if her license had arrived. She was told that it had come in the mail and that they had "forwarded" it to her. [redacted] knowing of the DMV's policy against forwarding mail, supposed that the license had instead been returned to [redacted] and, therefore, went to the DMV office [redacted] and executed a change of address notification. This was probably in mid or late October, 1973, and at that time DMV personnel told her that her license should get to her in a couple of weeks.

Approximately sixty days passed and the license did not arrive. [redacted] returned to the DMV office in [redacted] at which time DMV "put a tracer" on the license. As a result of this check, DMV advised [redacted] that the license had been mailed to her at [redacted] but for some unexplained reason it never arrived at [redacted] residence. At this point, DMV decided to start from scratch and had [redacted] execute new paper work, took a new photograph, and processed the application as they did with a "lost license case". Within two or three weeks, [redacted] received her new license which she now possesses.

[redacted] displayed this license and it was observed to have her color photograph thereon and proper descriptive data relating to [redacted]. A notation on this license indicates it will expire [redacted]. [redacted] has no idea why or how a copy of her license would appear in the burned ruins of the Symbionese Liberation Army (SLA) house at 1466 East 54th Street, Los Angeles, California, apart from the possibility that it was intercepted in the mails. [redacted] stated that she is not acquainted with PATRICIA MICHELLE SOLTYSIK, also known as Mizmoon, or any of the other known SLA individuals and knows nothing of the SLA apart from what the news media has reported.

when two white females, giving the names [redacted] [redacted] contacted them at the property in regard to the rental. He stated [redacted] were working inside the house and that he noted both girls got out of a small automobile, dark in color, possibly either dark blue or black. He stated the car was parked across the street and that [redacted] had apparently been driving, as she got out of the car first. He was unable to describe the make of this car, as he just barely noticed it pointing out he did not desire to state any particular make as he did not pay that much attention. He only recalls that it was a very small, dark car. He continued that he received the impression that the car did not belong to either [redacted] [redacted] as when he was going through rental negotiations with them he pointed out that the lock on the garage was broken and wanted to call this to their attention if they intended to store their car there. He stated one of them told him that the car they were driving did not belong to them and that they did not own a car but planned to buy one.

[redacted] advised that they both went to [redacted] near the end of January, 1974 to make a minor appliance repair. When they arrived at the property, they observed a white male in his early twenties installing a heavy security-type lock on the front door of the residence. This lock was the type security lock requiring a key both to enter and exit the house. [redacted] described this white male as being in his early twenties, 5'6", heavy, curly, dark blonde hair, blonde, bushy mustache and wearing mod glasses. [redacted] introduced this male individual by name [redacted] however, [redacted] could not recall the name. [redacted] stated that they would furnish a key to [redacted] for the new lock. [redacted] stated he never received the key. [redacted] explained that they were having the security lock installed because they had never lived in a house, had always lived in an apartment and felt the need for greater security.

At this point in the interview, the following spread of pictures was shown to [redacted]

The spread included several different pictures of EMILY and WILLIAM HARRIS and PATRICIA MICHELLE SOLTYSIK.

[redacted] stated he could not positively identify any of these individuals as identical to [redacted]. [redacted] advised that the picture of PATRICIA MICHELLE SOLTYSIK closely resembled [redacted], however, she could not make a positive identification. [redacted] stated that [redacted] are the only three individuals they ever saw at the [redacted] property during the [redacted] tenancy. At the showing of the photographs, [redacted]

[redacted] entered the room and [redacted] advised that [redacted] had seen [redacted] on one occasion. After [redacted] viewed the photographs, [redacted] picked the photograph of PATRICIA SOLTYSIK as a very good likeness for [redacted] could make no other identification.

[redacted] stated that he had made arrangements to receive the rent checks by mail and did not return to the property during February. [redacted] stated that he returned from a [redacted] on about March 3, 1974. Upon his return, [redacted] was told by [redacted] that the rent had not been received from either [redacted]. [redacted] attempted to contact [redacted] by telephone on several occasions between March 3, and about March 15, 1974, however, he was unable to locate them by telephone.

On about March 15, 16, or 17, 1974, [redacted] went to the property at [redacted] and noted that the house appeared to be abandoned. There was mail stashed in the mailbox and no signs of anyone being at the property. [redacted] stated he could not enter the front door with his key because of the new security lock and after attempting to open various windows in the house, found a kitchen window unlocked. [redacted] entered the house through the unlocked kitchen window after forcing his way through tightly drawn cloth which he later found had been nailed to the inside of the window frame. [redacted] then examined the inside of the property and found that all windows, including a frosted glass window in the bathroom, had been tightly covered by tacking the drapery material to the window frames and where drapery material was not available, other heavy cloth was tacked to the windows. [] found spoiled food left in the refrigerator and two one gallon wine jugs in the kitchen sink. [] advised that the house had hardly any furniture and was in an unkempt condition, however, it did not appear that anyone had used the house extensively other than in the master bedroom.

b6

[] noted that in the master bedroom there appeared to be hundreds of small holes in the walls which he later determined were made by BBs. In addition to the BB holes in the walls, [] stated that in the master bedroom there were heel prints on the walls up to a level of about five or six feet. In addition to this, the master bedroom closet, which is approximately four feet by six feet, had the lock reversed on the door to prevent it from being opened from the inside. [] further stated that some kind of a shelf or device had been fastened to a wall inside the closet since there were holes in the wall and evidence that something had been "ripped or torn from the wall". [] also advised that it appeared a large lock had been placed on the inside of the master bedroom door since a hole had been made in the door casing and the door indicated a lock had been placed there and removed before the occupants left the house.

[] also searched the attached garage at [] where he found a 1961 Chevrolet station wagon, Bel Air, white over light green, which was abandoned in the garage. He advised that the station wagon had figured curtains in the side and rear windows. [] stated this automobile bore California license plate [] and had been backed into the garage. He stated he recalled the car being backed into the garage because he was angry that someone would position a vehicle in the garage so the gas tank of the vehicle was next to the hot water gas fired heating tank. He stated the hood of the car was raised. A heater hose was laying on the floor of the garage and oil had dripped on the floor of the garage. It appeared that the heater had been removed from this vehicle and one of the heater hoses was folded over and clamped in the engine area of the car.

Upon making the discovery that the house and car appeared to have been abandoned, [redacted] stated that he called [redacted] to check on [redacted], however, he received a recorded message stating that the Personnel Office had been moved to Kansas City. [redacted] stated that on about March 20, 1974, after trying to decide what to do about the abandoned car, he checked with the Walnut Creek Police Department to see if there was a stolen report on the car. When finding this was negative, [redacted] stated he checked with the Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) and learned the automobile was registered to [redacted]

In regards to the automobile, [redacted] stated that he thought probably the car belonged to [redacted] he had observed at the property earlier and on April 15, 1974, he wrote a handwritten letter to [redacted] notifying him that he had the automobile and desired that [redacted] make arrangements to recover the car. The letter was returned by the Post Office undelivered. On May 29, 1974, [redacted] had his secretary prepare a typewritten letter to [redacted] which [redacted] sent registered mail to [redacted] requesting [redacted] make arrangements to recover the car. The letter was returned by the Post Office on May 31, 1974 undelivered.

[redacted] advised that he [redacted] decided to sell the property and on about [redacted] started painting and refurbishing the property in preparation for its sale. He stated in addition to [redacted] [redacted] helped paint the property and they noticed that the small holes in the walls had been made by BBs being shot into the wall. In addition to this, they observed that a wooden beam at the end of a long hallway in the bedroom area had been shot full of BBs. [redacted] stated that the entire house was re-painted, however, he did not paint the inside of the master bedroom closet. [redacted] stated that in addition to the covering of the windows previously mentioned, the master bedroom had soiled spots on the walls which appeared to have been made by either two mattresses or sleeping bags placed on the floor in that bedroom. There were no beds or other furniture in the house with the exception of two cane-type chairs which had been left in the living room. The carpeting in the master bedroom was very dirty and dozens of BBs were removed from this carpeting when cleaning.

[redacted] advised at this point that the carpeting had been cleaned in the entire house just previous to [redacted] renting the property and all of the carpeting remained in a clean condition other than the master bedroom. The only other furniture left in the house was a glass top table and two broken chairs. The two broken chairs have since been discarded, however, [redacted] have at their residence the glass top table and the two chairs which were left in the living room.

[redacted] stated that at about the time they were cleaning and painting the property for sale, [redacted] suggested that he contact law enforcement authorities about the strange condition of the house. However, [redacted] stated that since he had so many "kookie renters" before [redacted], he decided that they were just two more "kookie individuals".

[redacted] removed the above-described station wagon from the [redacted] address about April 18, or 20, 1974, and drove it to his residence in [redacted] had engaged the services of Dad's Locksmith and Hardware, 5270 Mission Street, San Francisco, to make a key for the security lock on the front door of the residence and a key for the 1964 Chevrolet station wagon. Subsequent to that time, he has had numerous contacts with [redacted] in an effort to secure title to the vehicle but, to date, has been unable to obtain title.

[redacted] stated he did not give serious thought to the tenants or the property after it was sold in late [redacted] until [redacted] obtained [redacted]

[redacted] advised that she was discussing the strange circumstances of the [redacted] address and the abandoned vehicle with [redacted] when [redacted] stated that she had a close friend, one [redacted] who was doing research for a newspaper reporter.

[redacted] stated the newspaper reporter was [redacted] was writing a book on the kidnaping of PATRICIA HEARST and would probably be interested in some strange circumstances
